

Travel Grants for Graduate Students to Attend “Enduring Loss in Early Modern Germany”

Fifth International Conference Sponsored by Frühe Neuzeit Interdisziplinär

Duke University
Durham, North Carolina
March 27-29, 2008

Grants Courtesy of Arts and Sciences at Washington University in St. Louis

Eligibility: Good standing in a graduate program in the disciplines represented by the conference and a demonstrated interest in research in early modern Germany

Please print out and complete the following application form and return it to Lynne Tatlock, President, FNI/ German Department/ Box 1104/ Washington University/ St. Louis, MO 63130.

Name: _____ Home Address: _____

Tel: _____

Fax: _____

e-mail: _____ Soc. Security # _____

Degree Program and Institution:

Name and Affiliation of Sponsoring Faculty Member (specify relationship to you, e.g., dissertation advisor, graduate advisor):

What is your reason for attending the conference?

Budget. On a separate page, please enumerate your anticipated travel expenses. The travel grant will cover up to $300 of documented travel expenses and can be claimed only as a reimbursement when you present your original receipts after the conference to Washington University in St. Louis/ German Department/ Box 1104/ Washington University/ St. Louis, MO 63130. Please address to the attention of Lynne Tatlock.

We have only a limited number of these grants and (given eligibility and a creditable budget) will award them on a first come, first served basis.

Signature: _____ Date: _____